Match Fees: $20.00 per shooter. Make check or money order payable to me.

LIABILITY WAIVER: An agreement of release and waiver of liability must be signed before the match starts. The waiver is available on the CRC web site www.crci.org. Please bring a copy of the completed waiver to the first match for verification.

RULES: The current Civilian Marksmanship Program (CMP) Competition Rules will govern the conduct of this match. CMP Competition Rules are posted on the CMP web site at <http://thecmp.org/wp-content/uploads/CMPGamesRules.pdf>

AWARDS, CLASSIFICATION AND CATEGORIES: Awards will be miniature metals from the CMP awarded to the top 3 teams Gold, Silver and Bronze from each category. For Vintage Sniper, there are two categories, one for semi-automatic rifles and one for manually-operated rifles. If a team is firing both semi-automatic and manually-operated rifles, the team will be placed in the manually-operated category. If multiple Semi-Automatic or Vietnam era Category "B" teams participate, awards will be separated into the 2 categories. CMP cut scores are not utilized during the awards.

CMP RIFLE PURCHASE ELIGIBILITY: The CMP Certificate of Competition (available upon successful completion of the match) in one of these CMP matches meets the CMP requirement for proof of marksmanship participation for purchasing rifles from the CMP. Go to www.odcmp.org or call 888-267-0796 or 419-635-2141 for details.

SAFETY: Safety is paramount. Each shooter must provide eye and ear protection. Empty Chamber indicators must be used and may be borrowed for use at the match or purchased for $1 each.

COURSE OF FIRE: The Course of Fire is detailed in rule 6.0 and in Annex D.

DISTANCES TO BE FIRED: The CRC High Power range will be used to fire at 300 and 600 yards.

TARGETS: The Official SR-3 300 yard and MR 600 yard Military Targets will be used.

RIFLES: Each competitor should provide his or her rifle as stated in Table 7. Rule 2.7.4 states that Match Sponsors may, at their option, allow competitors to fire unlimited and special military rifles. These competitors will be recorded as firing out of competition (open individual category) and will not be eligible to win awards.

AMMUNITION: Each competitor is required to provide their own safe ammunition.
